Weekly Calendar for the Spring 2021 Session

Graphic View

Legend:

These are days that keep a regular class schedule.

These are basically free days or rest days that students can use as they wish – for studying, traveling, resting, and so on.

These are special programs that are part of the core program but outside the regular class schedule – eg. meditation retreats or workshops.

These are days for field study or exposure trips, outside of the main campus of Wongsanit Ashram.

These are days for observing special occasions (such as opening and closing ceremonies) collaborating on final project preparations, or for quarantine.

These are days on which there will be activities undertaken by the work team only; students will not normally have any duties on these days.

Dear All,

This is a draft schedule for the School of English for Engaged Social Service program for Spring of 2021. We try to attain a balance of regular class days, rest days, workshops, and field excursions. Within this schedule you will have quite a lot of time to plan freely on your own or with others. Please think about how you can use that unstructured time to be of most benefit. This schedule is subject to change. If the COVID-19 situation does not improve, and travel to Thailand is impossible by January 10th, we will postpone the course until May 2, 2021. In that case the course would run for 10 weeks from May 2nd – July 8th, 2021.

Many good wishes,

Ted Mayer

Notes:

1. Unconfirmed means that the dates are not yet confirmed. The activity itself is expected to be part of the SENS 2021 program.
2. Optional means that students are free to sign up for this event or program (at no extra cost) or not.
3. Wednesday evenings are normally the Director's Film Night, when the director of the program chooses a dramatic film that helps to elaborate on the themes of the program—and of the week in question if possible—while also providing practice in English.
4. Quarantine is likely, but not absolutely certain. Also, the period and conditions of quarantine have not yet been announced for this period. The period would likely be 7-14 days. Students will likely need to undergo a COVID-19 test before leaving their home country, bring a signed letter from a physician, and undergo another test upon entry into Thailand. During quarantine, students will be able to attend online classes and receive personal guidance online from course tutors and/or leaders.
5. We will provide a schedule for the backup course period of May 2nd – July 8th 2021 soon. Our decision on this matter—January or May—will take place by the beginning of December 2020.
